

God as Our Refuge in the Psalms

A Personal Growth Bible Study by Robert Jones

One of the most comforting truths in Scripture is that God is the Refuge for his people. The following ten passages from the Psalms speak of God as our Refuge. Read each passage prayerfully and write down an observation or a personal application in the space provided. Consider owning one or more of these verses for memorizing and mediation. Then, on the back of this sheet or on the next page, write a brief summary or a prayer to God that reflects what it means to you, or could mean to you, in your present life situation to have God as your Refuge.
